Laney went to the University of Michigan where she played on the women's soccer team and got her degree in elementary education. Before venturing into the blogging world, Laney was an elementary school teacher (1st and 2nd grade). Teaching has always been her first passion and one of her favorite parts about blogging is the community she's created through teaching people about food and cooking. Laney focuses on creating easy, approachable recipes for the everyday home cook. She enjoys sharing step-by-step recipes which helps give people the confidence they need to get back in the kitchen. She loves using simple, seasonal ingredients in her recipes and always loves a spontaneous kitchen dance party. Laney has been featured in SHAPE Magazine, The Feed Feed, TheKitchn.com, BuzzFeed.com, The Huffington Post and Los Angeles Magazine.
